Dear Parishioners:

There's a lot happening in our parish for which to give thanks. First, a great big THANK YOU to the Tuscany at St. Joseph's Committee. Thank you for your hard work and commitment in making the Tuscany at St. Joseph's a success! I also want to thank Father Oscar for giving us a powerful Lenten Mission. We are now preparing for the St. Joseph's Table on March 18th and 19th! Finally, the Knights are getting ready for the Fish Fry on March 23rd!

On this Fourth Sunday of Lent, let's focus on "Learning to See". Our lives are sometimes similar to that of the blind man, who opened himself to the light, who opened himself to God and who opened himself to God's grace. Sometimes unfortunately, we are similar to the doctors of the law: From the height of our pride, we judge others - even the Lord! Today, we are invited to open ourselves to the light of Christ, in order to bear fruit in our lives and to eliminate unchristian behaviors. We are all Christians but everyone at one time or another has unchristian behaviors - behaviors that are sins.

Let us ask ourselves? Do I have an open heart or a closed heart? Is it open or closed to God? Open or closed to my neighbor? We need not be afraid! Let us open ourselves to the light of the Lord. He awaits us always in order to enable us to see better, to give us more light and to forgive us.

Your brother in Christ

Father Joseph

Book Study starting 3/15/2018

Fr. Edward Hays, an artist and an author, has written many books to help us to grow in our Spirituality and Faith. For our continuing book study, we have chosen a book of his parables. Parables are stories that have an obvious meaning, but may have many different stories buried within, kind of like a two sided jig saw puzzle. When the puzzle is completed, it shows a complete picture; but when the puzzle is turned over, it shows a completely different picture! This book contains 22 parables that we will read and discuss, so we can learn how to read the obvious and the hidden meanings of the stories. It will help us to understand the parables we are used to hearing in the New Testament.
