The storm on the Sea of Galilee is the storm inside every human heart — waves that rise without warning, winds that threaten to break us, fear that whispers we are alone. Yet in the darkest hour, Jesus comes walking toward us on the very waters that terrify us, proving that what overwhelms us is already under His feet. And when we dare to step out of the boat, trembling but reaching, His hand is already there — catching us, lifting us, saving us.

La tormenta en el mar de Galilea es la tormenta dentro de cada corazón humano: olas que se levantan sin aviso, vientos que amenazan con rompernos, miedo que susurra que estamos solos. Pero en la hora más oscura, Jesús viene caminando hacia nosotros sobre las mismas aguas que nos aterrorizan, mostrando que aquello que nos abrumba ya está bajo Sus pies. Y cuando nos atrevemos a salir de la barca, temblando pero extendiendo la mano, Su mano ya está allí — sosteniéndonos, levantándonos, salvándonos.

On the Grace-Filled Success of Our Parish Festival

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

What a grace-filled, joy-soaked, Spirit-breathing weekend the Lord gave us. Our Parish Festival on August 1 and 2 was not merely an event — it was a testimony of God's goodness, the strength of our community, and the quiet miracles that happen when a parish chooses to love, serve, and celebrate together.

We express heartfelt gratitude to Bishop Stephen Berg, who presided over our 4:30 PM Mass with fatherly warmth and pastoral generosity. His presence reminded us that we are part of a larger Church — a family that stretches far beyond our parish boundaries, united in faith, mission, and love.

And now, what can we surmise — what can we read between the lines — from this extraordinary parish activity

We can say with confidence that St. Joseph Parish is alive. Not just functioning, not just surviving — alive. Vibrant. Growing. Hopeful.

We can say that our unity is stronger than ever. People from different backgrounds, ages, cultures, and stories worked side by side as one family. That unity is not accidental; it is the fruit of prayer, humility, and shared mission.

We can say that our parish has a future worth dreaming about. When a community can gather like this — peacefully, joyfully, generously — it means God is preparing us for even greater things.

We can say that our faith is visible. Anyone who walked through our festival grounds could see it — in the laughter of children, in the kindness of volunteers, in the reverence of the Mass, in the warmth of fellowship. Faith was not hidden; it was shining.

And finally, we can say that St. Joseph himself smiled upon us. Our patron, the quiet protector, the faithful worker, the guardian of families — he surely walked among us these two days, blessing our efforts and guiding our hearts.

My dear parish family, thank you for making this festival not just successful, but meaningful. Thank you for showing the world what a parish can be when God is at the center and love is the language we speak. May the Lord who began this good work continue to bless our parish with unity, joy, and courage. And may St. Joseph intercede for us always.

With gratitude and affection,

Fr. Joseph

We are also grateful for all the donations of food and drinks, cakes, stuffed animals, and kitchenware.

Thank you to Most Reverend Bishop Stephen Berg for celebrating Mass with us this past weekend. It is always a blessing to have our Shepard in our parish.
