Matthew 22:15 21 reminds us that Jesus sees through every trap and every fear we carry, and He calls us to live with a heart that is honest before God. When He says, “Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God,” He is really asking us to look at our lives and see what part of ourselves we have not yet surrendered to Him. In the end, this passage challenges us to give God not just a coin, but our whole heart, our choices, and our daily witness.

Mateo 22:15 21 nos recuerda que Jesús ve cada trampa y cada miedo que llevamos, y nos llama a vivir con un corazón honesto delante de Dios. Cuando Él dice: “Den al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios”, en verdad nos pide mirar nuestra vida y ver qué parte de nosotros aún no hemos entregado a Él. Al final, este pasaje nos desafía a darle a Dios no solo una moneda, sino todo nuestro corazón, nuestras decisiones y nuestro testimonio diario.

HONORING THOSE WHO SERVE. THANKING THOSE WHO PROTECT.

Saturday October 24th @4:30pm
St. Joseph Church will celebrate the Mass in honor of all First Responders men and women who unselfishly give to protect us and our loved ones. Please join us as we come together in gratitude and prayer for these people who serve with courage, dedication and sacrifice.
We see you. Thank you.
We pray for you.

My dear brothers and sisters,

Last weekend, our parish entered October with the Rosary in our hands. This weekend, I want us to enter October with something even deeper — a renewed reverence for life. Because October is not only the Month of the Rosary. It is also Respect Life Month, and these two devotions are not separate lanes of faith. They are one road leading us straight to the heart of Christ.

Respect Life is not a slogan. It is a way of seeing. It is a way of loving. It is a way of standing beside the vulnerable, the forgotten, the unseen.

Every human life — from the first spark of conception to the final breath of natural death — is a gift from God. Not a problem to solve. Not a burden to carry. Not a statistic to debate. A gift. A sacred mystery entrusted to us.

And Mary teaches us how to honor that gift.

She carried Life in her womb. She protected Life when danger threatened. She stood by Life as He hung on the Cross. She received Life again in the Resurrection.

When we pray the Rosary, we learn to see life the way Mary sees it — with tenderness, courage, and fierce fidelity. Every Hail Mary becomes a quiet promise: Lord, I will stand with Your children. I will defend Your image wherever it appears. I will love the life You place before me.

To pray the Rosary is to learn how to respect life. To respect life is to live the Rosary.

My friends, this month I ask you to let your prayer become action. Let your beads become compassion. Let your devotion become protection for the unborn, the elderly, the sick, the poor, the lonely, the immigrant, the wounded, the unseen. Let us be a parish that sees every person as Mary saw her Son — precious, beloved, worth standing beside.

May Our Lady of the Rosary teach us to cherish every life with her heart.

Fr. Joseph
